

The Council for the Built Environment (CBE) is a statutory body established under the Council for the Built Environment Act, 43 of 2000 (the CBE Act). The CBE is an overarching body that coordinates certain functions of the six Councils for the Built Environment Professions (Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Engineering, Property Valuation, Project and Construction Management and Quantity Surveying - all operating within the Built Environment) for the purpose of promoting and protecting the interest of the public in the Built Environment.

APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FROM SUITABLY QUALIFIED AND EXPERIENCED CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENT AS A CHAIRPERSON OF THE STATUTORY APPEAL COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT (CBE)

Closing Date: 12 February 2021 at 10:00

The CBE has the statutory mandate to decide appeals lodged by any person aggrieved by a decision of any of the Councils for the Built Environment Professions listed above. The CBE is obligated by its enabling legislation to appoint an Appeal Committee to conduct appeals in terms of section 33 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (Act No. 208 of 1996). It is required of the Appeal Committee to decide appeals within 60 days of lodgement.

The Appeal Committee consists of three members. Legislation has further prescribed that one of the members of the Appeal Committee must be a person qualified in law who has appropriate experience. This member will be appointed as the Chairperson of the Appeal Committee.

The duties and the scope of work of a Chairperson of the Appeal Committee include, but are not limited to:

- i. ensuring that all appeals are conducted in accordance with section of 33 of the Constitution of South Africa
- ii. ensuring that all appeals are decided, with fully motivated reasons, within 60 days of lodgement and furnished to the CBE
- iii. directing the activities of the Appeal Committee to achieve items i and ii above

Due to the nature of the appointment, the applicant must demonstrate leadership qualities, integrity, independence, dedication and should possess good communication skills, analytical ability and independent judgement. The applicant must further possess and demonstrate the following academic qualifications, experience and competencies:

- i. Bachelor of Law degree
- ii. Seven (7) years post admission experience as an Attorney or Advocate
- iii. Knowledge of Constitutional and Administrative Law
- iv. Understanding of the CBE Act and legislation that governs the six professional councils in relation to which appeals may arise

The successful applicant will be remunerated at a rate of R 1800 per hour excluding Value Added Tax (VAT). Travel expenses will be reimbursed additionally. This appointment will be for a period of 12 (twelve) months.

Applications setting out a motivation as to why the applicant is qualified to be appointed, must be accompanied by an updated curriculum vitae as well as certified copies of an identity document and qualifications. Applicants are further required to provide evidence that they have previously served as a presiding officer and adjudicated hearings or appeals by submitting at least two copies of rulings/judgements handed down.
